

Learn to love yourself

This Valentine's Day, our staff encouraged our clients and followers to love themselves!

Safe Passage Monthly Update: February

February was a busy and exciting month for Safe Passage! We were fortunate enough to hire more staff to assist with our busy schedules. We have also begun rehabbing our Long Term Transitional Housing. The renovations will help our clients to feel more comfortable in a nicer and safer space. Staff were also excited to participate in an active shooter training at the DeKalb Police Department. DeKalb Police Department provided an active shooter training for our staff at Safe Passage. Staff learned each component of an active shooter response and the importance of empowering during times for crisis. School Resource Officers complimented Safe Passage for being one of the most secure locations in DeKalb!

Upcoming Events

Help us celebrate Sexual Assault Awareness Month!

April 14th: Walk a Mile in Her Shoes

We are once again hosting our annual Walk A Mile in Her Shoes, an opportunity for our community to stand against sexual violence by putting yourself in the shoes of a sexual assault survivor to walk a mile in high heels.

April 24th: Take Back the Night

Join us for a free event to raise awareness to sexual assault! We will stand together with survivors and community members to say sexual violence is not tolerated in our county. Together, we will march downtown DeKalb and let our voices be heard. Immediately following, survivors will have a chance to share their stories. Click here for more details!
